3rd Thursday of the month,
Joint monthly meeting with
Riverside/San Bernardino
Chapter

Tree Law in California

Randall S. Stamen will join us, along with the Riverside/San Bernardino Chapter, to discuss Tree Law in California. Randy will discuss a number of topics involving laws pertaining to tree ownership, tree liability, trees that obstruct views, etc. that can directly or indirectly affect a land surveyor's work and their clients. Randy's experience & expertise on this subject should be very valuable to practicing surveyors.

Randall S. Stamen Attorney at Law / ISA Certified Arborist

Randy is an Int'l Society of Arboriculture Certified Arborist as well as an attorney. He received a Bachelor's degree from the University of California, Irvine. His law degree from University of San Diego School of Law. The Law Offices of Randall S. Stamen are located in Riverside. A great deal of Randy's practice involves risk management and litigation in the arboriculture industry. Typical cases involve trees which kill and injure people, arboriculture malpractice, wrongful removal of trees, encroachment disputes, view disputes and eminent domain. He prepares and interprets arboriculture laws and guidelines for cities and other government agencies. He has represented arborists, individuals, property owners, government entities, amusement parks, insurance companies, utilities and homeowner associations in the past nineteen years. Randy is the author of California Arboriculture Law, a book about tree related lawsuits and laws. He has also authored numerous articles on risk management, arboriculture liability and arboriculture laws. He lectures throughout the US and internationally on risk management, arboriculture liability and arboriculture laws.
